

ME Productions Donates Gifts & Cheer for the holidays and throughout the year

January 16, 2006 — It's the holidays, but it's not just about parties for the Hollywood, FL production company, ME Productions. Employees of this national events planning company held a toy drive to help raise gifts and awareness for an important local charity. This year's recipient was Sheridan House, a Fort Lauderdale youth and family counseling center with four homes caring for 70 children.

Throughout the year, the team at ME Productions works on many worthy causes for a variety of area non-profits. The company's internal communication system is used to involve and promote employee participation. The company and its employees have participated in the following:

- Women in Distress
- Breast Cancer Walk
- Humane Society
- St. Jude's Ranch for Orphans
- Kids in Distress
- Christmas Toy Drive

Moreover, the Company, through its business services donates employee time, equipment, props, décor as well as its warehouse facilities for various fundraising events including:

- Latin Youth Program (ASPIRA)
- Bonnet House Junior Alliance
- Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital
- Humane Society "Cause on the Green"
- Boggy Creek Camp for Chronically Ill Children
- Miami Children's Hospital (Radio Lollipop)
- Miami Project to Cure Paralysis
- Marti Huizenga Boys and Girls Club – Hollywood Unit
- Daily Bread Food Bank - 10th Annual Celebrity Doodle Art Auction
- Michael-Ann Russell JCC – TennisFest
- North Broward Hospital District, Chris Evert Children's Hospital
